AFTER THE SPORTS

OVER THIRTY ARRESTS TO BE MADE BEFORE MONDAY NIGHT.

Their Crime is Aiding and Encouraging a Prize Fight—Names of Thirty-four Persons Handled in Last Night—Clark Was Hit Again Yesterday by McCoy—Harris Charged with Murder—Paddy Shea for Blood.

There are others besides Al Clark who are liable to be sorry that there was a prize fight Thursday night. It is reported on good authority that before Monday night over thirty prominent citizens will be arrested for aiding and encouraging a prize fight. These arrests will be based partly on a case work and partly on the sincere desire of a certain number of persons in this city to put a stop to prize fighting. There is quite a number who believe that the only way to put an end to prize fighting is to destroy the incentive to fight and the money is undoubtedly money. They believe, then, that the best way to stop it is to punish the people who pay the money, hence the contemplated arrest of the citizens who attended the fight. The arrests will be made in the names of thirty-four persons, many of whom are of more than average prominence in the affairs of the city.

It is not to be denied that the arrests will be made in the names of thirty-four persons, many of whom are of more than average prominence in the affairs of the city. It is not to be denied that the arrests will be made in the names of thirty-four persons, many of whom are of more than average prominence in the affairs of the city. It is not to be denied that the arrests will be made in the names of thirty-four persons, many of whom are of more than average prominence in the affairs of the city.

Some say that McCoy didn't take fair with him in smashing him without warning, while others say that both being professional fighters no warning should be necessary. Both of them washed in the same vessel and patch up their trouble temporarily, but on what grounds no one is able to state.

A good deal of astonishment was manifested at the sight of the fight on account of the way Clark treated the crowd who were to witness the contest. All of them were friends to him and they did not wish to see him go down to the prize work at an expense of from $10 to $20 and then to be told by him that he would not fight till some more money was put up. Clark had given him a good formed last night of some money was put up. Clark had given him a good formed last night of some money was put up.

There is another fight on the tapis. It is said, where McCoy and Harris will be the contestants. The challenge is made by Harris, but is not yet accepted by McCoy. Harris is a colored man and looks like he would be able to put up a better fight than McCoy. Harris has also challenged Shea but the latter will not accept except on one condition, that he will not fight till some more money is put up. Clark had given him a good formed last night of some money was put up.

A warrant was issued Thursday, stating that the late Thomas Voss had been arrested by Constable Tom Voss then took the warrant and found Shellenburg at the Wichita Hospital where he arrested him. Shellenburg was taken to the hospital because he was sick, and that he did not want to be there. He was taken to the hospital because he was sick, and that he did not want to be there.

Charles Peterson lodged night before last in the city prison at his own request, but last night he was locked in on the charge of disturbing the peace of the city. Mrs. Lane keeps a boarding house. She hired Charles Peterson last night to do some work for her. He did the work and made out a bill of $75 for doing it. Mrs. Lane also made out a bill and charged Charles 25 cents for meals, 25 cents for lodging and 25 cents for a bath. The two bills balance and Charles went to the police station and asked for lodgings. Yesterday when he got to the station he went to Mrs. Lane and again asked for money, but the lady informed him that he had earned nothing. He then told her that if she didn't pay him he would come to the police station and be arrested. She became frightened and cried for the police, and Mr. Peterson was escorted to the prison cell.

Five toughs were placed in the city prison yesterday. These men had been drinking alcohol and water which drink is called white line and is noted for making a man drunk. They were hanging around the Rock Island depot at water tank and had engaged in fight among themselves. The police were attracted by the noise and upon investigation came to the conclusion that they had better not go to the city police. Their names were W. Raymond, T. E. Gray, George Charles, Ed. Foster and John Welsh.

SOME CONFERENCE HISTORY.

It is said that Rev. Wood received a certain letter from Bishop Mallison.

There is a list of history connected with the recent Methodist conference at Wellington that has never been published. It relates to Rev. Wood, the president of the conference, who was the subject of the conference. The information on the subject was given yesterday to the reporter for the EAGLE by a gentleman who attended the conference.

"Yes," said he, "Brother Wood was changed from Goddard to Barton. Don't get it mixed up by saying that he was transferred, for such is not the case. When the minister is transferred from the Goddard to the Barton, the conference is changed from Goddard to Barton. When he is changed he goes from one charge to another in the jurisdiction of the same conference."

"Did his activity in the Law and Order league have anything to do with the change?" "I assume so, for the church at Goddard did not desire to retain him. The fact is, it was very difficult for him to get a charge at all, and Bishop Mallison told him so. I am inclined to believe that the change was made on account of the attitude of the Methodist church towards prohibition."

"No, not at all. The Methodist church has no objection to any man for the pulpit, he may hold on prohibition. In fact, I believe, it is favorable to prohibition. I know it is in the favor of temperance and anything that will enhance its cause. It has, however, objections to a man in the ministry giving more of his time to the enforcement of the prohibitory law, or any other law, than to the service of the church and the spread of the gospel. Bishop Mallison made this very clear to the class of candidates for the eldership at Wellington. He stated that the fact that under the terms of their vows all their time, talents and energies should be devoted to the service of the church. He stated that the fact that under the terms of their vows all their time, talents and energies should be devoted to the service of the church."

Another correction. I am very sorry to see neither your columns or my time further corrections of the statements of your representative in his report of my remarks at the meeting of the Christian Union Alliance last Tuesday night. I still believe that his statement is correct but the proper understanding, some of those engaged in carrying it into effect became discouraged. I gave it up. The gentleman also set out to the movement to which I referred as "Deacon Smith." To his pledge he got many signatures which he still has in his possession. I am sure that I am engaged in the effort to secure a census of those who would stand firm for the enforcement of prohibition. I can see no reason why I should not be able to do so. I believe in the enforcement of law, and that was what the movement meant and contemplated. I still affirm that in connection with the movement to enforce moral reforms the word "discouraged" has no place in my vocabulary, and I never has had.

William L. Johnson is now turned at the jail nearly all the time since arrested. George Foy leaves Monday for Florida, where he will remain for some time, perhaps for ever. John Smith Turner, formerly a painter of this city, was killed at Las Vegas, N. M., Monday.

Fred Bentley returned yesterday from Harper county where he has been on an important lawsuit. Miss Jessie Sparr, 2 years of age only, came up from Wellington yesterday, by herself, to visit her aunt, Mrs. M. A. Corvina.

About twenty young men are rehearsing in the hotel at Barton, Kan., preparatory to starting out as a minstrel company. Two big wagon loads of fish were brought over from the Walnut yesterday. They were sold at retail at 10 cents a pound and went like hot cakes. Mrs. Ellen Frazier of Eureka, who is visiting friends in the city, took suddenly ill at the residence of her cousin yesterday. Her husband was notified by wire and will be here this morning.

A lad about 12 years of age, living on Maple street, fell off the Lewis street bridge yesterday and had not been there since. His mother said he had been drowned, as he could not swim.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

Commencing Monday night St. John's Big Comedy company make their reappearance at Crawford Grand opera house opening a week's engagement at popular prices, 10-30-50 cents.

"Shadows of a Home" will be presented on Monday the opening night. This piece is a comedy in three acts, and is a masterpiece of the art. It contains a wholesome, homely and human story, abounding in hearty touches of nature that move the gentler and better impulses. While songs and specialties are a part of the play and are in full swing, at times the blending of sentiment is so perfect that the auditor goes from the ridiculous to the natural and vice versa unconsciously and without a seeming inconsistency. The cast contains many of the old favorites, while the new additions are said to be equally good and fully up to the requirements of the characters they assume. The management offers as an inducement to present his company to the public a free ticket Monday night to any lady who is accompanied by a lady or gentleman purchasing a thirty cent seat and a complimentary ticket to the orchestra and a rousing big house is therefore assured.

A large and appreciative audience greeted the St. John's Conservatory of Music last evening, at their monthly concert, and the concert was a success. The program was published in Tuesday's EAGLE, with the exception of the violin solo, which had to be omitted on account of an accident to the violin.

Catarrh

In Its Worst Form
Life Almost a Burden
A Glorious Change Due Solely to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Catarrh is a constitutional disease, and therefore it can only be cured by a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read what it did for Mrs. King, cordially expressed in her own voluntary words.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: I write what your grand medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, has done for me. Five bottles cured me of catarrh in its worst form. I think it was only a matter of time when it would have been cured by your medicine."

"I can scarcely realize wherein a few months ago I was almost a burden, sick and discouraged, now I am well and happy, gaining flesh and a new being. And all owing to Hood's Sarsaparilla."
